HOBOKEN.

Mrs. Ohf Petersen, of Arndel, Norway, arrived In Hoboken yesterday, accompanied by her two children a boy of nine years and a daughter of seem. Petersen, who came to this country six years ago, recently sent for his family. On Wednesday, as he was going home from his work, he was struck by an Eric engine at the Henderson-st. crossing in Jersey City and killed. The sad news was broken to Mrs. Petersen by the Rev. Mr. Shive pastor of the Scandinavian Prec Church, who had feliayed the funeral until the arrival of the widow and children. He will now raise funds to send the widow and her boy and girl back to their old home.

A dinner to the members of Acme Lodge, A. O. U. W., at Blake's restaurant on Friday night was Paid for by Captain Addison Ely, master workman of the lodge, because Levi P. Morton was elected Governor of New-York Captain Ely was a devoted acherent of Hill but J. C. Elder took the Other view, and would have paid for the dinner if Hill had been elected. As his form of office is If Hill had been elected. As his term of office is on the point of expiring, the Captain asked his fellow lodge members to share in the calculation of the Republican victory. Pleasant and witty Beeches were made by Messrs. Ely, Mackay, Russell, Brecht and others.

Miss Lity Ward daughter of the late William W. Ward, was married on Thursday to Harry Shaw. The young people will continue to live in Rutherland.

W Petty is announced Petty is an organization of well-known young amateurs, will give its second entertainment and reception of the season we Wednesday night.

The Rutherford Lawn Tennis Club continued its series of alternate Saturday card parties last night, rogressive enchre was the game, and there were half a hundred contestants for the prizes.

Emil Wurster, twenty-two years old, bill clerk for the Peters & Calhoun Company, saddlery man-ufacturers at Broad and Green sts., was sent to the State Bank at 16:45 o'clock yesterday morning to get a check for $900 cashed to pay the employes. and he did not return. The police were informed. A most interesting concert was given in As-Mrs. Katherine Doubleday, of this city; Miss. Martina Johnstone, the Swedish violinist; Mrs. Hattie Clapper Morris and Mackenzie Gordon, of Alken Metcalf, of the Mendelssohn Glee Club; Miss sang a number of selections, and showed that she was in excellent voice. Miss Johnstone, who appeared here for the first time, was received most enthusiastically, and was obliged to play a number of extra pieces, so loud and long was the applause. She captivated the audience. Mrs. Morris, who is always a favorite in Newark, was as ciever as usual, and she and the others who took part received many marks of approval from the audience. The four "sacred scrolls" that were stolen from the Hebrew synagogue known as Anshei Stard Linas Hazdeck, on November 8, have been returned. They came from New-York by express, after an agreement had been made by two rival factions in the congregation to make an equal division of the synagogue property.
